

NEEDLEART 2010 AT MONTPELIER MANSION

This will be our 15th year of turning this wonderful mansion into a gallery for your needleart. The dates of the show are Friday, July 16th thru FRIDAY, July 30th, 2010!! Drop off is July 11th and 12th at the mansion. Get your pieces ready; get framing in early; and remember no piece is "not good enough to enter!"

Eligibility

All Needleart entries must have been made by the living exhibitor with a hand held threaded needle and be appropriately finished. All pictures and wall hangings must be wired for display purposes. Articles entered in last years' exhibit are not eligible. The acceptance committee reserves the right to refuse and/or limit entries that are deemed inappropriate, unable to be properly displayed or adequately secured.

Entry Information

- 1) Entries will be accepted at Montpelier Mansion (RTE. 197 & Muirkirk Rd., Laurel, MD) on Sun., July 11 from 2-6 pm & Mon., July 12 from 10 am-12 pm.
- 2) Junior Amateur entry fees are $4; all other entry fees are $5.
- 3) Each entry must have a separate completed entry form (see last panel) - photocopied forms are acceptable.
- 4) Insurance coverage is the responsibility of the entrant.

Judging

Entries will be judged by a panel of regionally known needleart professionals. A list of ribbon recipients will be available on show days at Montpelier Mansion.

Montpelier Mansion, A National Historic Landmark, in Prince George's County, Maryland, is a return to the past, to an era of gracious living & hospitality. Seventy acres and the house itself remain of what once was a plantation with land holdings of approximately 9,000 acres, an array of outbuildings that included various tobacco barns, stables, slave quarters, among others. Large trees and boxwood grace the landscape that also boasts an original 18th century summerhouse. Montpelier Mansion is one of the finest examples of Georgian architecture of the 1700's in Maryland. The Mansion is a property of the Maryland-National Capital Park & Planning Commission and is operated by the Prince George's County, Parks & Recreation Department, Natural and Historical Resources Division.

LOCATION: Route 197 & Muirkirk Road, Laurel, MD. 1/4 West of the Baltimore-Washington Parkway From the Baltimore-Washington Parkway (Route 295), exit at Route 197. Turn west onto Route 197 & continue approximately 1/4 mile to Muirkirk Road. Turn left onto Muirkirk Road & make first right into the Mansion grounds.
